DANVILLE, VA., May 28.—Danville's spectacular batting, together with the superb pitching of Lavender, won for her the second of the series of games with Richmond to-day by a score of 11 to 2.

Colonel Still was taken out of the box in the first inning, after four menhad faced him, three of whom secured two-base hit's each, and the fourth a sacrifice. Happy Eekstone was substituted, but the locals batted him almost as they pleased. Although the visitors had three errors chalked against them, they played a fast-fielding game and the miscues did not figure materially in the score.

Lavender was in fine trim and gave the fielders back of him few chances to do any great work. Up to the eighth inning he had not allowed a single hit, when Shaffer connected. Two more hits were made on him in the ninth, and but for this the contest would have been a shut out. The score:

RALEIGH, N. C., May 28.—The trial of Revenue Officers D. C. Downing and J. C. Stancil, on the charge of the murder of Watson Jernegan, a blockader, in Duplin county, in 1903, began in the Federal Court before Judge Purnell this morning, and will probably be completed to-merrow. Practically all of the session to-day was taken up with the selection of the jury.

Outing to Dutch Gap.

With an ideal evening for such an outing, save that it was, perhaps, a trifle too cool, a large party enjoyed the moonlight excursion, under the auspices of the Church of the Hely Comforter, last night. Leaving the city via the steamer Pocahontas about 8 P. M., the party steamed down the James to Dutch Gap and returned about midnight. Music on board the boat enlivened the journey, and refreshments were served.
